'A group exhibition of artists who work independently, yet are held together in an 'orbit' of sorts.'
- Dr Alexandra Lawson

Satellites was a group art exhibition showcasing the work of 13 contemporary Australian artists, 11 of whom live and work in the Toowoomba region. It is situated within broader investigations about regionality, creativity, and place. It was the first exhibition in a new art gallery funded by the Toowoomba Regional Council as a part of the Renew Australia project, the first Renew Australia project in Queensland. The Renew project is an initiative by the Toowoomba Regional Council in association with local property Developer, Walton Stores.

The curator of the exhibition Alexandra Lawson participated in multiple radio interviews including ABC radio on the Sunshine Coast, in the Toowoomba Region, and the exhibition was covered by Win News, Seven, and in the Toowoomba Chronicle. The Renew project was opened at the gallery by Toowoomba Regional Council councillors for the arts Megan O'Hara Sullivan and Geoff McDonald.
