

HYBRID: What Journalists Ought to Do: Examining Journalistic Roles

📍 Room 6 (GCCEC Upper)

Friday, June 21, 2024 · 10:30 AM-11:45 AM AEST (1h 15m)

📅 Add to calendar

🔄 Watch recording

Participants:

(Chairs) Claudia Mellado, Pontificia U Católica de Valparaíso

Papers:

Journalistic Revolution: The Rise of Newswomen During Australia's Press Wars, 1933-1945

Caryn Coatney, U of Southern Queensland

International Communication
Association

Home

Schedule ▾

Community ▾

Expo ▾

More ▾

Attendees

🔍 Caryn

Sort by: First name ▾

Caryn Coatney

U of Southern Queensland

Please kindly note that the web program seems to be converting apostrophes into other punctuation symbols in the above screenshots. Peer review information is available at

<https://www.icahdq.org/page/conf_reviewerguide>. Related information about the conference paper is included in the following screenshot from this link:

<<https://www.icahdq.org/page/JournalsFAQ#:~:text=ICA%20does%20not%20publish%20conference,are%20removed%20from%20the%20website>>.

How can I access past conference papers?

ICA does not publish conference papers, they are available to conference registrants only during the conference and 60 days after, then they are removed from the website. Past conference programs can be found here: <https://www.icahdq.org/page/PastFuture>.