C. Remarks: Please, summarize the reasons for your overall recommendation and provide us with helpful suggestion (especially regarding "No" answer on the Checklist) to improve the manuscript.

The content s were well written. previous researches and founding by others were mentioned in this paper. In the 'materials and method section', the method used in this study is acceptable. Besides that, every steps were clearly explained. The figure of results were conducted give a good explanation on the activities involved during experiment. In introduction and methodology is no correction. But there has several correction on the format. please refer your paper. and please proceed your paper..tq
