

Art that grabs the goat by the tale

Polish artist Beata Batorowicz will bring to life a series of children's stories at QUT this month through her exhibition Tales within Historical Places. Inspired by Fairy Tales from Auschwitz, a book of stories created in the death camp during World War II, Batorowicz's exhibition is at QUT Art Museum until October 28. www.artmuseum.qut.edu.au Picture: JEFF CAMDEN

